From Thursday March 15. to Monday March 19. 1682.

Genoua, March 10.

THe fifth Inſtant arrived here the Good-Will Captain Edward Good, in 40 days from Tripoli, and brings an account, That that Government have broken the Peace with the French, having taken two Merchant Ships belonging to Marſeilles, and that eight of their beſt Men of War are now abroad with Orders to take all the French Ships they meet. The ſeventh Inſtant came in here the James Galley, Captain Shovell, from Cadiz, Alicant, and Majorca.

Vienna, March 7. Two Expreſſes have arrived here ſince Sunday laſt from the Count de Caprara, the Emperor's Miniſter at the Port, by the way of Dalmatia; it is not yet publickly known what news they bring, but people do miſtruſt it is not very good. The Letters from Hungary give an account, That Count Teckeley had, through the Confiſcations to which he had ſubjected the Eſtates of ſuch of the Nobility as had not repaired, purſuant to his Summons to the Dyet at Caſchaw, raiſed a conſiderable Sum of Money, which he did employ in his Preparations for the Campaign, and that he had received Orders from the Grand-Vizier, to have his Troops in a readineſs to take the Field the next Month: And from Belgrade we have advice, That Baſſa Saitan Ibrahim was ready to March with 15000 Men, being the Vant-Guard of the Army, towards Hungary; That he was to be followed by 8000 Janizaries, and to be reinforced with the Troops that are Quartered on the Frontiers; That the Troops from Aſia were on their March, and that the Grand-Signior would himſelf be in the Field the beginning of May. While our Enemies are thus preparing for War, we are not idle on this ſide. The Emperor has appointed a general Rendevous of his Troops to be held the 28th of this Month. Several Boats and Galleys are Building here, which when finiſhed will be ſent to Comorra, and are to be employed on the Danube, to prevent the Deſign which the Turks may have in fitting out the ſmall Veſſels which they are preparing at Belgrade. Great diligence is uſed to fit the Train of Artillery, which is taken out of the Arſenal here, and it's ſaid it will in a very ſhort time be in a readineſs to March. Quarters are aſſigned in the Suburbs of this City for 3500 Soldiers, and 5000 Peaſants are appointed together with them, to work on the new Fortifications that are intended to be made for the Security of this City. The Count Erdeody, Viceroy of Croatia, is arrived here, and has been in Conference with the Palatine of Hungary and the Miniſters here, concerning the Militia of thoſe Countreys, which are to be formed into Regiments, and to joyn the Imperial Army. We hope our next Letters from Poland will give us a good account of Count Wallaſtain the Emperors Ambaſſador's Negotiation at Warſaw. The Governor of Zendre, in Upper Hungary, has ſent hither to acquaint the Emperor that Count Teckeley will not ſuffer any Proviſions to be carried thither, and that by reaſon thereof the place began to be in great diſtreſs, which does not agree with the aſſurances Count Teckeley lately gave this Court, That the places in which the Emperor has Garriſons, in Upper Hungary, were at liberty to ſupply themſelves with what Proviſions they wanted. The Duke of Lorrain is ſuddenly expected here, being to command, as it's ſaid, the Emperor's Forces in Hungary.

Cologne, March 16. It is the general opinion, That our Elector is drawing his Troops together, in order to employ them againſt the City of Liege, and that the Baron de Landsberg, who is to command them as Major General, is come hither to receive his Electoral Highneſs's Orders therein. There is a diſcourſe, That the Duke of Guiers is ſending a Body of Men, under the Command of Monſieur d'Avila, to the aſſiſtance of the Emperor againſt the Turks. The Miniſter which our Elector ſent to the Conference at Soeſt, is come back, and it's ſaid, That a League was concluded there between the King of Denmark, the Elector of Brandenburg, the Elector of Cologne, and the Biſhop of Munſter, for the Security of their reſpective Territories, againſt all Invaſions whatſoever. The Commons of this City are ſtill aſſembled, and talk of ſending Deputies to the Emperor, to give him a right Information of their late Proceedings, which they ſay have been falſly repreſented to his Imperial Majeſty, to their Prejudice.

Bruſſels, March 19. On Sunday laſt arrived here the Sieur Heinſius, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces to the Moſt Chriſtian King; he had a ſhort Conference with his Excellency the ſame Evening, and the next day continued his Journey for France. The Captain that was brought from Mons, and is now a Priſoner in Vilvord Caſtle, for holding an unlawful Correſpondence, has been put to the Torture, which he endured 24 hours with great Conſtancy, and denied the matters he is accuſed of, which are however ſo plainly proved that it's not doubted but he will be condemned to die. We have had no account of the Prince de Chimay ſince his departure from hence for Luxemburg, but the Letters we have from thence Inform us, That they were very quiet again on that ſide, the French Troops that had given them the Alarm being retired to Arlon. The States of this Province have at his Excellency's deſire, Farmed the Impoſt upon Wine and Beer, for ſix Months, for 74 thouſand Florins, which is almoſt the Double of what the ſaid Duty has hitherto raiſed, and in conſideration thereof his Excellency has taken away the Priviledge that many pretend to have not to pay this Duty,
